5 PARISHIONERS' QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS

There were no questions on the content of the report.

Mr Cairns thanked the Chair and the Council for it hard work over the past year in trying to improve the villages. He stated that he was concerned that Mr Oliver was not invited to a meeting with regard to the alteration of the Bridleway so he could attend to give his views he also stated that the application was outside the parish boundary. The Chair advised that the Council were specific consultees with regard to the changes in the bridleway and it was not a planning matter, Mr Oliver would have been informed by the County Council of the consultees involved in the process. He stated that it all meetings are open to the public and he could have attended.
